

Diwali Mela

October 25, 26, 27, 2013 (Fri-Sat-Sun)

Terms and Conditions for Booth Rentals

1. Hindu Temple South Bay, Sunnyvale Executive Committee, (henceforth called TEMPLE) shall approve all Contracts with Vendors. TEMPLE reserves the right to cancel any contracts, at anytime, or make alternate arrangements.
2. TEMPLE will provide each vendor with approx. 8'X10' space with (approx. 6feet), two chairs and general room lighting in the designated area. Vendors must return this space in a clean, "as received" condition without any damage or defacement. Every booth will have a circuit breaker (20A for food booth, 5A otherwise). Please do not try to use more power than circuit breaker provided, including microwaves and other warming/cooking tools.
3. Food booth vendors must ensure that proper hygienic conditions are maintained and plastic gloves are used during handling of food. Food vendor shall not perform any deep frying or cooking at the facility.
4. TEMPLE will not assume any responsibility for any loss, theft or damage of vendor's merchandise.
5. Temple will not allow any illegal sale of items including pirated Videos or Audios. In case a vendor sells illegal items without temple knowledge vendor will be responsible for any consequences
6. Vendors will be permitted to sell only that merchandise that is approved by TEMPLE Executive Committee.
7. Vendors will not sublet their authorized space without written approval from TEMPLE.
8. Vendors should clearly mention in the application form, the type of merchandise or food that will be sold.
9. Vendors are not permitted to be engaged in any activity (such as display, lectures, canvassing, pamphlet distribution, etc.) which could be construed as an attempt to propagate any religious faith, or to advance any political cause or to create a communal bitterness.
10. Vendors must refrain from any activity, which could create a chemical or fire hazard (such as use of open flame, storage of combustibles or hazardous chemicals, tampering with electrical lines, etc.) or loud noise (e.g. speakers, etc) that could disturb other vendors or the normal procedures of the Mela or display or usage of any equipment which could be a safety hazard to public. In case a vendor fails to comply and display hazardous items without temple knowledge vendor is responsible for any damage or any legal suit
11. Booths will only be booked on receipt of full payments. Booths will be allotted two days before the event.
12. Booths will be rented out only for three days – Friday, Saturday and Sunday, no separate price for each day each day.
13. Friday is optional since the number of people visiting the Mela is much lesser than Saturday and Sunday.
14. All Booths need to be attended all the time during the festival hours.
15. All booth rentals are final and NO REFUND. All booths should be claimed by 12:00 PM Friday Oct 25th 2013, otherwise Temple will allot the booth to next in line.
16. The Boothe prices are:

Food Booth (outside the auditorium) -	$900.00
Non- Food Booth (outside the auditorium) -	$550.00
Non- Profit booth (outside the auditorium)) -	$250.00
17. The timing of operation of the booths will be:

Setup Time:	12:00 PM – 5:00 pm
Friday –	06:00PM – 11:00PM
Saturday –	11:00AM – 11:00PM
